600 ENTRIES TO COMPETE

Nominators Include Names of Men Fameus on Every Track in Land.

Norfolk, Va., November 9.—Some eep of the best race horses America affords, runners of various ages and classes that have been competing for nurses in the East, in Canada, in Maryland and in Kentucky, will assemble at the Jamestown Jockey Club track this week to participate in the fall meeting of 1912, which will be inaugurated on Wednesday. And, pursuing a custom instituted when he first came this way to provide Vitginia's greatest sea port with firt-class sport. Bob Levy will make the opening day "Ladies' Day," The fair sex of Norfolk, native and tourist, will be welcomed at the track gates and sent away with handsome souvenir programes artistically worked on silk.

Mr. Belmont has named cleverest three-year-old on the Canadian circuit while The Manager was out of sorts. Mr. Belmont has named Mission, a swift and sure daughter of the $150,000 stallion, Rock Sand. Mr. Wilson has named Altamaha, Penobsoct and the brilliant two-year-old. Tartar, one of the clevrest youngsters the current season has developed. H. G. Bedwell will be represented by Lochell, as game a sph of Hastings as ever stepped on ground. James Rowe has nominated Lahore, winner of the best distance race of the recent Laurel meeting, and Harry Payne (Evans).

Rowells and Harry Payne (W. & L.) 2: Hughes (V. P. I.), I. daughter of Adam and Disadvantage and the giar two-year-old of the softer sex of the brilliant season of 1910.

Bashti cost Mr. Whitney $22,000 when she was sold at public auction by the Newcastle stable in the paddock at Sarsioga in August, and since her return from England she has won a race at Fimilco, showing that she has lost sone of her whilms brilliant speed and unbeatable courage. It is no cinch that Bashti was not the greatest two-year-old of either sex in 1910. November 13-Engravers vs. Admen. U.D.C. Conference

On punting William and Mary had the better of it. Wright got his kicks away laster and to better advantage than did Berger, and became unable to than did Berger, and became assessing advance the leather in any other way, Williamsburg resorted to punting more frequently than did the locals. William and Mary executed one forward pass successfully, though it netted out one yard. Another failed. Richmond. pass successfully, though it netted out one yard. Another failed. Richmod College got away two passes, each good for six yards, while one failed in all William and Mary made first down eight times, while Richmond College made it first down seventeen times. Only once in the second half were the visitors able to make the required distance. Richmond College was penalized forty yards, while william and Mary suffered to the extent of fifty yards. Both elevens fumble and each suffered because of this.

But what's the odds, Richmond College was penalized forty yards, while will and the preferred a point of fifty yards. Both elevens fumble the many bands of brigands that warm over the country. Wear Arenstein's Clothes

Use the same good judgment in selecting your clothes as you did when you selected Woodrow Wilson President of the United States. You can't make a mistake when you give your order to us for a High-Grade Hand-Tailored Suit or Overcoat. We make it right here in our shop. Every stitch is under our personal supervision. The quality of our materials is the best, our styles the newest and our tailors all experts.

Other tailors send their garments to sweat shops to be finished. The result is you get poor tailoring, old styles and a ished. The result is you get poor tailoring, old styles and a poor, pressed-into-shape fit.

Here we tailor every garment in this shop. Styles originate here, and every garment fits perfectly.

Beginning to-morrow we specialize on hand-tailored, fully guaranteed Suits and Overcoats, select styles and materials, at
